Dora's diary

DAY 1: The journey begins

The weather is beautiful. We're sailing by ship to the island of Nula Gula. I can see dolphins and sharks. The captain is a friendly man with grey hair and a long beard. You have to shout for him to hear. He's so old.

DAY 2: The storm

There's a terrible storm – thunder, lightning and rain. The ship is going up and down. I'm so scared. The waves are as big as houses. The captain isn't worried, but it's a small ship and the waves are so big. I feel sick. What's that noise? Oh, no! Quick, to the lifeboat! Save me!

DAY 3: Alive but...

I'm all alone in a small boat. The weather is hot again. I'm thirsty. I don't have any water, just an empty bottle. I can see Nula Gula island. It's so close, but the boat is going the wrong way! I have to swim. The sea is full of sharks. This is my last message. I'll put it in the bottle and throw it into the sea. I hope one day someone will read it and remember me...
